

PHOTO BY CHRISTOPHER SERJU

Dionne Clarke Harris, Caribbean Agriculture Research and Development Institute representative for Jamaica, and Jerome Thomas, Food Agriculture Organisation representative, seem impressed with the quality of this belt made from goat leather. They were attending the official opening ceremony of the three-day workshop on 'Diversification of the Caribbean Livestock Sector through the production of Small Ruminants', at The Jamaica Pegasus hotel, New Kingston, last week.